At the completion of the course, students should be able to:

1. Define and demonstrate appropriate use of research terminology;
2. Critically evaluate published research in scientific journals and the popular press;
3. Formulate research problem statements;
4. Enumerate the values inherent in the practice of scientific research;
5. Conduct a thorough review of literature and synthesize the findings; and,
6. Prepare a sound and feasible research proposal.

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATION STANDARDS: Upon completion of this course, students will meet the following professional accreditation standards:

Council on Accreditation of Parks, Recreation, Tourism and Related Professions (COAPRT):

PD 13	Describe and differentiate the types of quantitative and qualitative research and describe components and process of scientific research (including statistical decision-making) as it relates to athletic training research.
-------	---

PD 14	Interpret the current research in athletic training and other related medical and health areas and apply the results to the daily practice of athletic training.
PD 4	Develop a research project (to include but not limited to case study, clinical research project, literature review) for an athletic training-related topic.

Assignment Summaries

Note – All assignments will be due prior to the start of class on the day they are due (unless otherwise stated).

1. Topic Selection Assignment

The intent of this assignment is to encourage an early start on your research proposal including your topic selection and literature search.

2. Written Article Review/Presentation

The intent of this assignment is to increase your familiarity with quantitative evidence-based peer-reviewed journal articles. Select one of the articles you are planning to use for your research proposal. Read the article thoroughly. Summarize and critique the article. You will present (~5 minutes) a summary of the key points from your article. This will serve as an opportunity to improve your oral communication.

3. Introduction/Review of Literature

The intent of this assignment is to apply your curiosity, in addition to your conceptual and practical understanding of your topic to asking questions and defining research problems. Specifically, you are to write an introduction to your research proposal, a specific statement of the problem, an integrated review of the pertinent literature, identification of variables, and testable hypotheses.

4. Sampling Plan/Methods

The intent of this assignment is to describe the population and the target sample size appropriate for evaluating your hypotheses. The methods is to continue development of the research proposal, specifically identifying the research design to be used, measurement tools available and detailing the data collection procedures. This assignment also includes a discussion of how you would validate and confirm the reliability of your instrument, in addition to a discussion of the possible ethical problems and their solutions for your study.

5. Data Analysis Plan

The intent of this assignment is to develop data analysis plan on how you would proceed to analyze your data if you were to conduct your proposed study. Your plan must include the appropriate descriptive and inferential statistics.

6. Presentation of Research Proposal

The intent of this assignment is for you to share your research proposal with your colleagues via a 10-minute PowerPoint presentation. This assignment will allow you to gain experience in oral presentation skills. As part of the experience, your colleagues & I may ask questions about your study.

7. Final Research Proposal

The intent of this assignment is for you to apply your conceptual and practical understanding of your research topic to prepare a final and complete research proposal. Your proposal should illustrate your familiarity with problem formation and hypothesis development, review and critical analysis of the scholarly literature related to your study, justification of appropriate methodology, and consideration of the implications of your research. This assignment is a revision and extension of all content included in previous assignments.

- Other Requirements

Attendance and Participation
